Enchanted Ball Weekend August 29 – September 1, 2008

An extended weekend to celebrate the summer season and the beauty of the White Mountains. Saturday evening is a black and white ball where women glow with gowns of grandeur and the gentlemen shine in coats of sophistication. Children enjoy the gaiety of dressing up and dancing with their parents in this family enchantment. Enjoy dancing in the Grand Ballroom where Joseph and Carolyn Stickney once danced in the time honored guest experience. The remainder of the weekend offers adventure and activity for families and couples.

The Dining Room:

Before dancing in the Grand Ballroom where Joseph and Carolyn Stickney once danced, enjoy an award-winning formal dining experience in The Dining Room at The Mount Washington Hotel. Dinner here is a world-class experience, with personalized service, elegant surroundings, musical accompaniment and a menu of culinary delights crafted by Resort Executive Chef Ed Swetz. Gentlemen are required to wear jackets in the evening and women and children should dress appropriately. Reservations are required and can be made by contacting 603.278.8989.

The Enchanted Ball:

A gala affair, reserve a table by contacting 603.278.8989. No fee to Mount Washington Resort guests who attend the ball; $30 per couple fee for non-Resort guests.

Accommodations:

For a stay in the National Historic Landmark, The Mount Washington Hotel, with its graciously appointed accommodations, please contact our reservations department at 800.258.0330 for overnight package rates.

Kids' Club:

Kids ages 4 to 12 enjoy a vast array of activities under the guidance of our experienced Kids' Club counselor team. As a part of the summer season, Kids' Club offers three sessions a day. In the morning, Kids' Club opens at 9:00 am for its nature-based program. Activities are steered towards an out of doors experience and run until 12:00 pm. Afternoon Kids' Club is from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm and is an activity based team activity program. Activities are geared to keeping the children moving. After a late afternoon break, our Evening Kids' Club program kicks off at 6:00 pm.

Monday through Saturday three sessions are available to choose from. On Sunday, morning and afternoon Kids' Club sessions are available. Regardless of your child's choice, they are sure to have fun in the outdoor playground at the foot of Mount Washington. Reservations are suggested for all sessions of Kids' Club, space is limited. Sessions with no reserved registrants may be cancelled. Fees apply.
